A DANUEROUS DEFENSE

The plaintiff's case was closed yesterday in the Pollard-Breckinridge trial for breach of promise, and the counsel for Col. Breckinridge, in an opening address, outlined to the jury the defense on which their verdict would be asked.

The boldness of the assertions made by the counsel occasioned some astonishment in the court. The jury were told that Col. Breckinridge claimed and would "corroborate by his solemn oath" not only that he had never made any promise of marriage to Miss Pollard, but that every advance in their guilty relations with each other had been made by her to him; that he had never been told of her having become a mother through him until after the commencement of the present suit, and that she had herself proposed to go to the Guess house with him, explaining that she most unfortunate for the defension of the present clue.

Millions of tomatoes come through the Savannah Steamer Company's docks every week. Cases hold about thirtytwo quarts. Green vegetables sell at $3 mind will not pine for style. It is not a good rose red at $3.50 and beefsteak tomatoes plan to relate one's economy to the public; it at $4. The green goods are put into a close room, heated by a gas stove; cracks are stopped with paper and in a couple of days the commission merchants sell them for $4 or more. He can't be fooled although the dealers are more gullible. An all green vegetable will rot but never it has been pulled before its growth has been completed. There mus be a tinge of red to make them available.

Silver-Plated Lobster Cracks. This is the beginning of the lobster season, and dealers in table furniture are setting forth cracks, picks scoops. Lobster cracks are worth from $3 to $6 each, according to the quality of the plate; picks are $1.25 each, and scoops are about the same price. Gentuses at the Table.

Danger in Perfumes. Women who are fond of indulging in strong perfumes should remember that they are decidedly injurious to the sense of smell. By their frequent use the secretory glands of the nose and throa are overtaxed and weakened. One day the person netices that the hearing is less acute than usual, and the sense of smell seems defective. This is, of course, This is a pretty costume, suitable for put down to a cold, and but little is thought of it. After a time the entire head becomes affected, and there are threat and lung complications which Smelling salts are a proline cause of acafness. German housevives, and perhap others, make an excellent icing for cal-without eggs. To a half pound of pow-dered sugar add the grated rind of a orange, a tablespoonful of boiling water and a little orange juice-enough moisten it thoroughly. This should be used at once, and when "set" will ound soft and very nice.

An Exercise for the Shoulders. Directly under and in front of the arms often come ugly hollows, very dis-tressing to women who desire a pretty figure. What can be done with this a fliction? The muscles must be strength ened and then these hollows will graually fill up. Every morning and nigi go through this exercise : Advance one foot and stand with weight on it. Inhale slowly, and, retain ing the breath, rapidly swing, the arm forward, up and backward in large c cles, as nearly perfect and parallel each other as possible. Make from fi to ten rotations, then discontinue a exhale. Repeat this exercise severa times with each foot advanced, alte nately. Take good care not to bend the torso or to crane the neck. Keep t chest high and the head well poised.

Look Out for "Plated" Fruit. Green grocers have a bad habit of pick-ing over fruits and vegetables. It is a common practice to put the old goods in fresh lined boxes and spread a layer of fresh, crisp berries or greens on top This is called "plated" goods. Just not strawberries, beans, peas, tomatoes beets, sprouts and greens are undergoin very heavy "plate." So are the oranges Boxes that are sold on Saturday at about $2.50 are so shamefully "plated" that be tween forty and fifty of the 126 are loss to the buyer. The most audacious trade "plated" fruit is carried on by the peddlers, who load their wagons with spoiled oranges and cover the top with 'choice Indian Rivers."

A Hint to Biscuit-Makers. Biscuit made with an acid and at alkali, such as baking powder, soda and cream of tartar, or soda and sour milk should be baked in a very hot oven. The hotter it can be the better. An oven tha will color a piece of white paper dark brown in one minute will be none too ho for this kind of biscuit.
